Regulation Exam No – 07

Rules Regarding Grace Marks and Condonation

Grace Marks for getting Distinction
A candidate who has passed in all the subjects/heads of passing in an examination can be given up to three marks in grace in subjects if so required to get him distinction in the concerned subject.

Grace marks only for passing
1. The examinee shall be given grace marks if required only for passing in heads of passing (Theory/Practical/Oral) as shown below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Total Marks of head of passing</th>
<th>Grace Marks up to</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Up to 50</td>
<td>02</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>51 - 100</td>
<td>03</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>101 - 150</td>
<td>04</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>151 - 200</td>
<td>06</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>201 - 250</td>
<td>08</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>251 - 300</td>
<td>09</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>301 - 350</td>
<td>11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>351 - 400</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

And so on the same ratio.

Note:-Grace marks given in the head of passing under the regulation will be added in the marks obtained and accordingly should be reflected in examination result ledger and statement of marks.

2. Grace marks for getting higher class
A candidate who has passed in all the subjects and head of passing in the examination and whose total number are less than those required for getting second class or higher second class (50%) or first class with distinction or any next final grade by 1% of the aggregate marks of that examination or up to 10 marks whichever is less shall be given the same to get the next higher class/grade.

Provided that benefit of above mentioned grace marks shall be given to the candidate for such examination only for which provision for award of class has been prescribed.
3. Condonation

   If a candidate has passed in all other heads of passing but has failed in one head of passing his deficiency of marks in such a head of passing may be condoned by not more than 1% of the aggregate marks of the examination or 10 % of the total no. of marks of the head of passing and which he is failing whichever is less.

4. Condonation on the basis of Higher Marks

   If a candidate has passed in all other heads of passing in the examination but has failed in only one head of passing his deficiency of marks in that head of passing may be condoned as follows:-

   a) Up to 10% of the total number of marks of the concerned head of passing if the percentage of marks obtained by the candidates in all the subjects taken together exceeds by 10% over minimum percentage of marks required for passing.

   b) Up to 15% of the total number of marks of the concerned head of passing if the percentage of marks obtained by the candidates in all the subjects taken together exceeds by 15% over minimum percentage of marks required for passing.

   Illustration

   If the total number of marks required for passing in all the subjects taken together comes to 40% of aggregate marks the total number of marks obtained by the candidate in all the subject taken together should be at least 50% of the aggregate marks for application of the regulation 8(a) and 50% of the aggregate marks for application of regulation no 8(b).

5. While giving benefit of any of the regulation to the candidate at any examination for condonation of failure in any or the head of passing and or for awarding next higher class grade if any difficulty arises the Vice-Chancellor in consolation with the Dean of the concerned faculty shall take decision in the matter which shall not be inconsistent with the objects of these regulation and his decision shall be final.

   While giving benefit of any of the regulation for condonation of deficiency in failure of any head of passing or awarding next higher class only such marks may be awarded as are required for passing.

   Those marks shall not be divided for condonation of more than one head of passing.
6. No candidate shall be entitled for the benefit of gracing or condonation permissible under more than one regulation expect regulation no.5 and regulation no.11 respectively i.e. the benefit of regulation no.5 and regulation related to extra marks of extra curricular activities can be granted to any candidate at one examination the benefit of other two regulation shall not be granted to any candidates at one examination.

Notes for Regulations

i. If a candidate fails in a head of passing which he included in another head of passing of the same subjects he shall be entitled to the benefit of the condonation in both the heads if necessary subjects to the maximum limit of condonation permissible for each head in accordance with the above paragraph.

ii. If a deficiency of marks is condoned by class in the concerned examination of the candidate shall be declared on the actual marks obtained by candidate.

iii. The benefit of not more than one regulation shall only be given for the examination of one course.

iv. The benefits under above mentioned regulation shall not be available for internal assessment.

v. The benefits of above maintained regulation may be given to the candidate appearing in the examination with backlog and exemption wherever such an exemption system of backlog has been provided.

vi. The benefit under above mentioned regulation shall be given at the time of declaration of final examination only.

vii. Final examination for the purpose of this regulation means and includes such examination on the basis of marks of which class is awarded.